A classic Australian red with bags of friendly ripe and juicy blackcurrant fruit with a sprig of mint and some creamy, vanilla oak too.

Producer Information:

Named after a former Aussie Prime Minister who oversaw the transformation of Victoria's Murray River region from arid, near desert into a major agricultural region, Deakin Estate was founded in the 1960s launching the current eponymous range in 1994. The Murray River region is one of Australia's warmer regions and this is reflected in the bold, fruity, forward style of the wines.
