

Craggy Range Aroha Pinot Noir 2017

With a terroir-focused approach, Craggy Range works with some of the best areas in New Zealand: the Gimblett Gravels vineyard in Hawkes Bay and the Te Muna Road vineyard in Martinborough.

Tasting Note

Bright dark cherry colour. Beautifully lifted nose of dark rose, spiced red fruits, fresh bark and tar. Elegantly composed on the palate with lovely fruit density carried long by fine acidity and velvet-like tannins slowly unfolding for a long and dry finish.
