

Craggy Range Te Muna Pinot Noir 2018

With a terroir-focused approach, Craggy Range works with some of the best areas in New Zealand: the Gimblett Gravels vineyard in Hawkes Bay and the Te Muna Road vineyard in Martinborough.

Tasting Note

With generous morello cherry and plum with complex notes of fresh truffle and wet earth, this delicious Pinot Noir has spent 9 months in French oak barriques, giving it hints of vanilla and toast. A perfectly balanced wine with a smooth and complex finish.
