

Gerard Bertrand La Forge Red 2002, Occitanie

The specifically designated parcels of land for this wine come from after the Miocene, situated on the unique and narrow place named "La Forge", by the land register. With great sweetness...

Tasting Note

The specifically designated parcels of land for this wine come from after the Miocene, situated on the unique and narrow place named "La Forge", by the land register. With great sweetness and very ample, the palate reveals powerful and elegant aromas, reminiscent of jammy red fruits. It is a very great wine with soft tannins and a spicy length.

Demo Version - Select.Pdf SDK

Full breakdown

Product Code:	00043589
Country:	France
Region:	Occitane
Sub-Region:	Occitanie
Vintage:	2002
ABV:	15%
Bottle Size:	75cl